TREMENDOUS Row .- Last night a" tremendous" excitement was occasioned in the neighborhood of the Peabody Ho-tel, about 11 o'clock, by a drunken man in the concert saloon opposite. The man, whose name is Billy Wells, and who drives a transfer wagon, was set opon by Jack Ackerman and some of his rascally mackerely, and severely hurt by a blow from a brick hurled by Jack. He lefended blimself with a dirk, and stabbed Jack in the back, wounding him lightly and sending this thieving young sundrel hawling to a doctor. A police officer than attempted to arrest Wells, and a moles consult in which pistols were discharged, but not dy hurt. The affair would up by Weils "cleaning out" the policeman and several other men who same to his aid, and making his way nome unarrected. For awhile the ex-distinct in that region was intense, and all sorts of rumors were in circulation.
